Hometown— Everybody has one— or two or three. We soon found that out last fall when we asked our blog readers to send in theirs for our secret upcoming project. Be careful what you ask for! We soon got hundreds then thousands of responses. Because we wanted to include everyone, we tried to put them all into the “Town Square” print. However, if we used them all, we would still be working on it! We not only got response from the United States, there are towns from countries like Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, Canada and Japan in the print. I think we stopped at the first 1000. We hope everyone will have fun spotting their hometown, and not too upset if we couldn’t fit it in!
