Valley

by Sherri & Chelsi

Just before springtime in southern Nevada, when the weather is cool and brisk and you can still enjoy wearing a sweater or sitting on the porch under your favorite quilt, nature does something wonderful. The fallen leaves and branches are ready to begin anew; nature is still sleeping, awaiting its awakening, and the air is crisp. The desert valley is surrounded by the coral rocks of the desert hillsides, and amid the rocks, we find wild flowers and creosote, a native shrub that always smells of a fresh spring rain. The beauty of our surroundings and the rich colors of this time of year are the inspiration for Valley.
